It's EASY to locate!

From Columbia or Charleston via I-26:

Take Exit 199A (Highway 17-A) off I-26. Follow 17-A (Main St.) through town until you pass over the railroad tracks, passing Town Square and Town Hall (on your right). After passing Town Hall, Highway 17-A narrows from a 4-lane to a 2-lane road.

Continue on 17-A. You will pass Rollings Middle School of the Arts and Summerville Elementary School, both of which are on your left. Proceed to the traffic light at the five points intersection. Go straight and continue on 17-A. Highway 17-A will make a sharp right-hand turn. Continue for about 3 – 4 miles. You will see a cemetery on your right, Boone Hill United Methodist Church on your left. Shortly past these landmarks, you will see Summerville High School on the left. Continue on 17-A, passing a self-service car wash on the left. About 200 yards past the car wash, you will see the Center for Adult Training and Lifelong Learning. Turn left at the sign. This is the Summerville Adult Learning Center.

From Ashley Phosphate & Dorchester Rd.:

From Ashley Phosphate, turn RIGHT onto Dorchester Rd. toward Summerville and Walterboro. Continue on Dorchester Rd., passing straight through the intersections of Dorchester & Trolley Rd. and Dorchester & Bacon's Bridge Rd. At the first traffic light past the intersection of Dorchester & Bacon's Bridge Rd., turn RIGHT onto Old Orangeburg Rd. (Hwy 165). Go 1 ¾ miles and turn RIGHT at the drive just prior to the intersection of Old Orangeburg Road and Hwy 17 – A. The Summerville Adult Learning Center is the last building on the right and the end of the parking lot.

From I-95 and Walterboro on Hwy 17 / 17-A:

Begin on Hwy 17-A traveling East toward Summerville. Continue on Hwy 17 / 17-A to the intersection of Hwy 17-A and Old Orangeburg Rd. (Hwy 165). At the light at this intersection, go STRAIGHT. Just past the Kangaroo Gas Station / Convenience Store, turn RIGHT. There is a sign for the Center for Lifelong Learning and Adult Training. The Summerville Adult Learning Center is the last building on the left at the end of the parking lot.
